Earth Song

Spirit gathered and dreamed
the billion stars
and Earth
Life rose,
and learned
to feel
and know and (in a billion years
of wonderment)
to become . . .
Man.
Man
can learn to unfurl
his soul
to sail
before the Magic . . .
to unfurl
his body,
mind and heart
in work-play
love,
delight . . .
and soar
Earth's
rising Song
of Life.

Searching to be individuals, each our own person, we reached upward for our goals. Senior dreams taking wing. . .

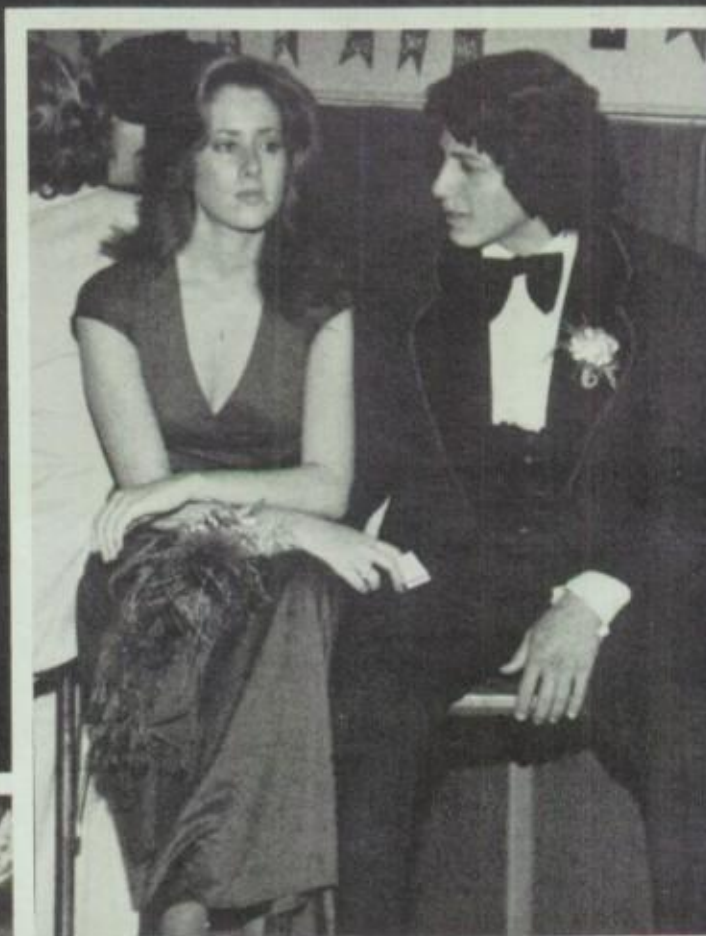

Looking up I Now See the Destiny Shown . . .

Together now, together forever at least in our memories. . . It was fun, being close, all the smiles and laughter. . . the freedom we felt-caring, hoping and loving.

Flyin' High

We Rejoice the Sun . . .

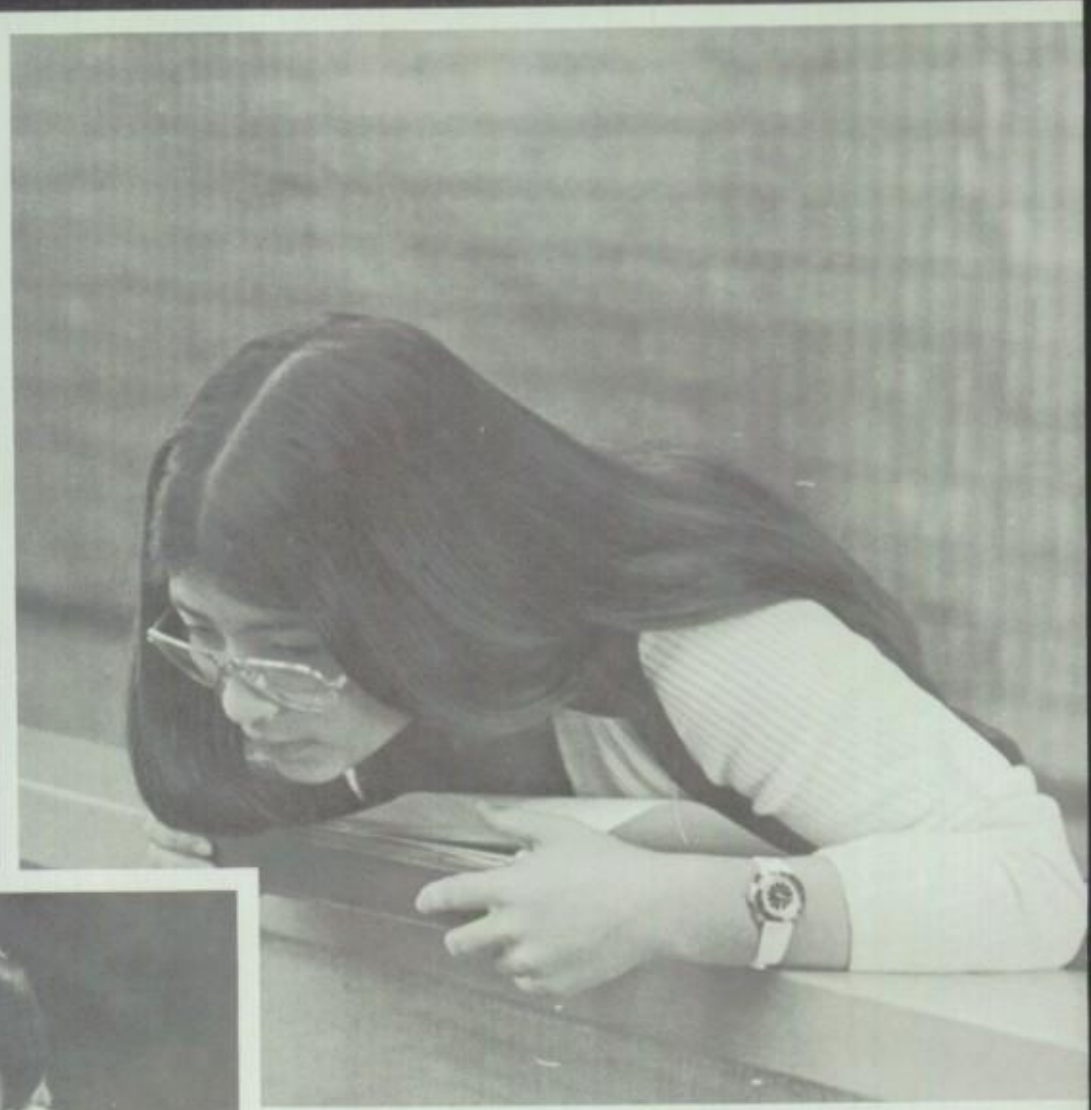

Four years and few complaints . . . There have been many moments of frustration and unfulfilled expectations, but it was worth it all.

With a look at each other, we now see that our friends have grown in directions that we never could have predicted. With a look at ourselves, we remember the past and look toward the future with anticipation.

Life does not begin after high school. It's the upward flight now, in all you do, in all you are. You are shaping your life with every thought, every experience. The thrill of your aspiration is getting there. The flight is marked along the way. There are others to help you, You needn't travel alone. . . . You are learning alternate paths from which to choose. The course isn't always clear, but the direction is upward. . . . Flying higher. . . . Have a purpose and a goal, but keep a corner of your life for reflection

It's how you live the day-to-day that allows you to enjoy winging your way upward. strive to become, but appreciate who you are. . . Life is a free-flying bird, rising even higher. . . And you are on your way
